

Home School Association Meetings

Please join us on the following dates in the meeting room of our school. The Home-School Association encourages parents and teachers to work as partners in fulfilling the mission of Holy Trinity School. The Home-School Association coordinates volunteer opportunities and promotes fund-raising activities. All parents are expected to become actively involved in Home-School Association events. The Home-School Association holds general meetings usually once a month. Please join us on the following dates in the meeting room of our school.

We look forward to seeing you there.
